HAPPY SPRING!

ELECTION NEWS:

There will be no election for 2013. There were three open seats and three candidates. Michael Spencer and Mary Harrington will remain on council for the next two years. Albert Bradbury, long-time commissioner, has decided to retire. Taking Mr. Bradbury's seat is John Joswick, of East Ayre Street. The commissioners will take their Oath of Office at the Reorganization Meeting on Thursday, April 18, 2013, at 6:30 pm prior to the regular meeting at 7:00 pm.

We would like to thank Mr. Bradbury for his time and dedication to the town and its residents. He will be missed.

ANNUAL SPRING CLEAN-UP DAY

Waste Management will be coming around to do our annual Spring pick-up on Saturday, April 20, 2013, from 8:00 am to 12 noon. No chemicals or appliances using Freon.

The town will hold its annual Business Breakfast on Tuesday, March 26, 2013, at Minquas Fire Hall. New Castle County Executive Tom Gordon will be the keynote speaker this year.

Spring code enforcement will soon begin. Now is the time to inspect your home's exterior, sidewalk and yard for repairs and cleanup. Help keep your town beautiful!

There are a few home business operators who have not renewed their business license. Please do so as soon as possible to avoid further penalties. If you are no longer operating your home business, please call the business office at 994-6403.
